Body

You've never heard of me. Hi, I'm (your name). I got your email from top-secret servers using a biorhythmic metaspider with a 100GB Nutro-plasmic VPN that I...

Ok, I got it from (Source name).

I'm reaching out because I like what you are doing over on (Name of social media platform where the influencer is most visible) and I'd like to send you a commission payment... Hopefully regularly.

I'm getting ahead of myself, but now that I have your attention, I'd like to mention something that can not only make you fairly decent commissions but also provide your followers with a way to really appreciate you even more.

It's our newest (product category).

Our (product) sells for (Amount) and we'll pay you (Amount you pay per sale) per sale.

This has the potential to be a nice win/win for both you and your followers.

If you're even the slightest bit curious, would you be open to a quick 7-minute chat?

I await your profanity-filled response.
Have an absolutely terrific day,
